Answer this question.

You rolled a number that allows you to place your mark on any dividend on the Bingo card. What number did you roll? Explain your thinking.

The number that lets you place your mark on any dividend is 1 because every number is divisible by 1.

Optional: Use this space for calculations.

Health educators teach kids and adults how to eat healthy.

How could a health educator use division to decide how many brochures to bring each class?